Commissioning restructure announced at Channel 4

Channel 4, 05.03.2007

Channel 4 has announced a restructure of its senior commissioning team, including the return of Julian Bellamy as head of programming for Channel 4. Kevin Lygo has been promoted to the new role of Director of Television and Content, line-managing all of Channel 4's TV output, including cross-platform commissioning areas such as Acquisitions, Education and Film. Bellamy returns to Channel 4 at a date to be announced, following his work at the BBC where he has been controller of BBC Three since late 2005. The head of E4 and More4, Danny Cohen and Peter Dale, remain in their posts and have commissioning responsibilities for their respective channels.

Suggested contact: Yvonne Taylor, Channel 4 020 7306 8523 fax 020 7306 8366 email firstinitialsurname@channel4.co.uk www.channel4.com

Fame TV launches pay scheme for UGC

Fame TV, 28.03.2007

Fame TV, the digital TV and online channel focusing on user-generated content (UGC), has launched a scheme to pay content providers. Members of the public can submit content online or via mobile phone, and can earn 10p for each vote accumulated by their clips.

Long-running Radio 2 show takes a break

BBC Radio 2, 13.03.2007

The Best of Jazz, the weekly jazz music show on BBC Radio 2 presented by Humphrey Lyttelton, is taking an extended break for the first time since it was first broadcast in October 1967. Lyttelton, who has been presenter of the show for its entire run, continues to present I'm Sorry, I Haven't A Clue on BBC Radio 4, and will return to The Best of Jazz for a three month run from July. The show will then broadcast as a 13-week series, twice a year.
